SEQUACHEE, TENN., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1920

NO. 16

HARDING

YOUR PRESIDENT-ELECT A WORKING MAN

Advices reaching here as early as 10:15 Tuesday night from the Chattanooga News conceded the election of Warren G. Harding, republican, as president of the United States. Only four southern States gave him majorities at that time, viz., Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama and Missouri. The other southern and border states indicated majorities for Harding. The total electoral vote of these states was 148, it being necessary to secure 266 to elect.

The News also wired that practically all the northern states would give Harding majorities from 21-2 to 1 to 5 to 1, which gave Harding 383, or 117 electoral votes more than necessary to elect.

The election of Joe Brown, republican, by 2000 votes over John A. Moon, democrat, seems to be an assured fact. The Times yesterday morning gave figures that pointed to Brown's election, and the News Tuesday night stated that Brown claimed election, but that Moon's friends were confident they would tide him over. Moon is defeated after having been in Congress 24 years, and having defeated adversaries with unfailing regularity.

Alf A. Taylor, republican, is leading A. H. Roberts, democrat, for election as governor of Tennessee by a small majority. Advices as early as 10 o'clock Tuesday night indicated that Taylor was in the lead. In this county 13 precincts out of 23 gave Roberts 474 and Taylor 1021, with the larger precincts to hear from.

Both houses of Congress are strongly republican, American voters putting men to the front to support the man they chose for president.

D. A. TATE IS RE-ELECTED

D. A. Tate was re-elected superintendent of schools over Alan S. Kelly by about 400 majority. Kelly entered the race against Tate and shelled the woods vigorously for voters, so much so that when the first returns came in it looked bad for Mr. Tate's success, especially since South Pittsburg was reported as going to give Kelly 200 majority. However, this diminished to 100 and the promised vote at Jasper also fizzled, although Kelly made considerable inroads there. Tate is recognized as a capable man in the management of the schools and his friends were extremely anxious to see him re-elected.

ALF TAYLOR CARRIES STATE

At 1 p. m. yesterday it was conceded that Alf Taylor had carried Tennessee by 15,000 majority. The state was also placed in the Harding column, thus breaking for the first time in history the vote of the solid south, 12 votes changing thereby to the Harding column.

Memphis, for the first time in history went republican, voting for Taylor, as also the entire county, Shelby.

Boston, Mass., a strong democratic city, went republican for president for the first time in its history.

VOTING BRISK AT LOCAL PRECINCT

The first woman voter was Louise H. Hill, followed by Mrs. Zilpha Haynes and Mrs. Ruby V. Hill.

Balloting was pretty vigorous in morning hours, republican and democratic voters, men and women alike being eager to vote.
